L. Tomlin Bailey, Esq.
Chairman
NSC Special Committee on Technical
Surveillance Countermeasures

Dear Mr. Bailey:

This Agency has in effect necessary procedures for the prompt notification to me of the discovery or suspected presence of any hostile audio surveillance devices directed against installations and personnel of this Agency. Procedures are also in effect to provide for damage reports after each discovery and to include among other requirements the extent and nature of known or presumed compromise of United States classified defense information.

The above information has been previously furnished to the Committee by the Director of Security of this Agency in memorandum dated 27 February 1957, Subject: Technical Surveillance Counter-measures.

If further information is desired, I will be pleased to furnish it to you.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
